At the Beginning of the Day

In the silence of the stars, in the quiet of the hills,

In the heaving of the sea, Speak, Lord.

In the stillness of this room, in the calming of my mind,

In the longing of my heart, Speak, Lord.

In the voice of a friend, in the chatter of a child,

In the words of a stranger, Speak, Lord

In the opening of a book, in the looking at a film,

In the listening to music, Speak, Lord

For your servant listens.

David Adam

A note from Father Kevin

While on vacation it kept coming back to me how grateful I was for the welcome that I have received from everyone. When I returned that welcome continued and so I remain grateful. All of this went right along with what Father Peter and others had shared with me, that the parish community, including the staff, the committees and volunteers would do everything possible to make me feel right at home. So whether it's an introduction at Church, a question or two about how I'm getting settled, a promise of how much I will love it here or the hard work of completing some planned painting and updating of things in the parish house, I am so thankful for the welcome and am very happy to be here.

Looking to the present and the future, I will continue to do my best to get to know you and to do all that is possible to support the spirit of family and community that you have created with Father Peter. I will work in my own way to continue to build on what you have built with Father Peter. St. James is clearly a place of hospitality, community and service that with prayer, and from what I've heard a little bit of fun, people are looking out not only for special groups like your children and teenagers but for anyone at any time who's facing a personal, spiritual or material challenge.

With that I close with a request those prayers for each other as well as Father Peter. May the spirit of Christ that is ever among us continue to keep St James Parish the great family of faith that you so appreciate and depend on.

Meet the Catechists Week #12

Eleventh Grade

As volunteer positions go, we can all relate to those that morph into a whole new one, a phenomenon to which Juli Frazee can fully attest. While Juli initially offered to serve as a hall monitor for the high school release time program, she quickly surmised that sharing her time and talent in the classroom setting was a role she was ready to tackle. "I think one of the things I appreciate most about our 11th graders is the fact that they don't have to be here...they want to," Juli expressed. Fresh from their experience with receiving the sacrament of Confirmation, the juniors in Juli's class explored the theme of "Service," welcoming a variety of guest speakers who shared how their professions and/or volunteer service minister to those in need, whether it be financial, spiritual, or perhaps both. "The guest speakers sparked meaningful conversations among the juniors and provided opportunities to discuss what it means to put faith into practice," Juli added. Among Juli's other St. James commitments are Parish Council, of which she is Vice Chair, and the Parish Life Committee. She is also the proud grandmother of 5 grandchildren, all of whom live locally.

Shadowing Juli in her role as catechist this year was John Redmond. A life-long parishioner of St. James, John wondered what he could offer to the release time program. A graduate of Christian Brothers Academy and Boston College, John felt compelled to share his education and experiences and is interested in exploring the resources available for curriculum at the high school level and has some ideas for adult education opportunities. John will be team teaching with Megan Fallon for the upcoming school year.

Adult spirituality is the focus of Sister Mary Ellen Curtin's work at the Spiritual Renewal Center in Syracuse and provided some of the focus for her lessons with the junior class. A leader of adult retreats and a presenter of workshops using poetry as a means of prayer and transformation, one of Sr. Mary Ellen's goals for her students was to help each individual discover those areas about which they are particularly passionate and to develop those gifts with which they are blessed. While getting students to share openly was admittedly challenging, Sr. Mary Ellen's practice of giving students time for personal reflection provided a model that will serve them well as their responsibilities increase in the coming years.

While this column concludes the highlights of the 2010-11 release time catechists, stay tuned next week for Fr. Kevin Corcoran's vision for the senior class.

COMING SOON.... Online registration for release time Religious Education. Please watch for a postcard with more details and check out the registration form on the St. James website www.stjamescaz.com

NEW PARISH DIRECTORY

Planning for a new Parish Directory

Our Parish Welcoming Committee has begun plans for a new Parish Directory. Our last one was done six years ago and needless to say there have been changes in our families as well as the welcoming of a new pastor and new parishioners. Olan Mills will be sending their photographer beginning Sept. 29 through Oct. 8 (except on Sundays). Please plan to participate. There is no obligation to buy pictures, but you will receive a copy of the Directory and a $25.00 gift certificate toward a purchase by participating. Mary Shamblen is coordinating this project and could use help with sign ups, and hospitality during the appointment times. If you would like to help, please call Mary at 815-4163 or Sister Milice at 655-3441.

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA)

Are you someone or do you know someone who...

- Has expressed an interest in becoming Catholic?
- Has a child over the age of 7 who has not been baptized?
- Was baptized Catholic as a child, but has not celebrated the Sacraments of Confirmation and Eucharist.

We offer an opportunity to come together in a small group to learn more about our faith. Sessions focus on the teaching and experience of Church and prepare individuals to celebrate the Sacraments of Baptism, Confirmation, and Eucharist during the Easter season. There are separate sessions for children or youth. You are welcome to participate in the process with your questions, insights, and your faith story in a warm accepting setting. Contact Colleen Grabowski, 655-4504 or Darlene Murray, 655-4181. Check out the RCIA bulletin board in the Hurd St. Entrance.

THANK YOU

The Haitian Twinning Committee would also like to thank the Sullivan & Amidon families, and everyone else who gave and worked so hard to make our Annual Yard Sale a success.
