Giving Thanks

O Divine Gift-giver,

I stand beneath the endless waterfall
of your abundant gifts to me.

I thank you especially for the blessing of life,
the most precious of all your gifts to me.

I thank you, Ever-generous One,
for clothing to wear,
for food and drink to nourish my body,
for all the talents and skills
that you have bestowed upon me.

I thank you for the many joys of my life,
for family and friends,
for work that gives to me a sense of purpose
and invests my life with meaning.

I thank you as well
for the sufferings and trials of my life
which are also gifts
and which together with my mistakes
are among my most important teachers.

Grant that I may never greet a new day
without the awareness of some gift
for which to give you thanks.
And may constant thanksgiving
be my song of perpetual praise to you.

Donal Harriagton & Julie Kavanagh

Meet the Catechists Week #10

Ninth Grade

When Linda Hansen and her family relocated to Cazenovia eight years ago, she brought her experience as a substitute religious education teacher with her former parish, St. John's in Kenmore, NY, to St. James. Initially taking on one class in the release time program, Linda soon began teaching back-to-back sessions of 5th and 9th grade classes. "I was already here prepared for one class, so when there was a need for a catechist to teach another grade level, I thought, 'Why not?'" she said. Linda's boundless energy is also evidenced in her part-time work as a substitute monitor at Burton St., her weekly volunteer work at The Key, and her contributions to the Human Development Committee and Sacramental Preparation at St. James. Three different degrees in business, social services, and elementary education add to Linda's diversity, as does her ability to personally clean every inch of her recently renovated house with no less than 5 bathrooms!

As with many of the catechists who work full-time, Rich Huftalen finds the 8:00-8:45 a.m. time slot allows him to begin each Wednesday with a slightly different feel. "I do go into work a bit later on religious education days, but I am able to bring with me some of the gratification that comes from sharing my faith," he shared. While Rich admits that creating lessons that are meaningful and engaging can be challenging, he also appreciates that his weekly preparation time encourages him to be a continual learner.

Trish Dougherty has worked with several different grade levels, from pre-school to high school, over the past several years and shared that "it just feels good to know you are helping where you are needed." Even when a work schedule change had her working a 10-hour shift nursing on the day she had committed to teaching religion to ninth graders, Trish found an occasional tag-team approach with Maggie Dougherty or Molly Dougherty was beneficial to both her and the students. Trish also credits Julie Hagan, Youth Ministry Coordinator, with providing support with lesson planning throughout the year.

Have you prayerfully considered the gifts you can offer to the religious education programs? As you ponder how you might be called to join these catechists in this unique ministry, please consider some of the "behind the scenes" roles (substitutes, childcare, and hall monitors) that are needed to keep the release time program running smoothly as well.

Planning for a new Parish Directory

Our Parish Welcoming Committee has begun plans for a new Parish Directory. Our last one was done six years ago and needless to say there have been changes in our families as well as the welcoming of a new Pastor and new parishioners. The Directory helps all of us put names with faces and becomes a good resource for staff and neighborhood leaders. Olan Mills will be sending their photographer beginning Sept. 29 through Oct. 8 (except on Sundays). Please plan to participate. There is no obligation to buy pictures, but you will receive a copy of the Directory and a $25.00 gift certificate toward a purchase by participating. Mary Shamblen is coordinating this project and could use help with sign ups, and hospitality during the appointment times. If you would like to help, please call Mary at 815-4163 or Sister Milice at 655-3441. More information will be coming.

12 teens and 3 adults traveled to Newark, NY last week and it was an amazing week. The service projects were found to be not only helpful to others but meaningful as well. There were personal connections made and friendships formed! Thank you so much for your support as a parish! Stay tuned in the upcoming weeks for more information on what was done while we were in Newark!

Oh Lord, we pray to give thanks for being blessed with adequate food, clothing and shelter that we take for granted much of the time. May we, through God's providence, continue to possess adequate material blessings to meet our needs for health, comfort, safety, and survival. Make us mindful of those who are not so fortunate, so that we might develop the generosity, willingness, and compassion to SHARE what we possess with those who are needy. Amen.
