Sensation of the Mystical

The most beautiful and profound emotion we can experience is the sensation of the mystical.

It is the sower of all true science.

He to whom this emotion is a stranger,
who can no longer wonder and stand rapt in awe,
is as good as dead.

To know that what is impenetrable to us really exists, manifesting itself as the highest wisdom and the most radiant beauty, which our dull faculties can comprehend only in their primitive forms

this knowledge, this feeling, is at the center of true religion.

~ Albert Einstein ~

A Living Love

If a schoolyard bully beats up your son, are you supposed to tell him to turn the other cheek? Or should you alert the principal of the school and get the bullying stopped? If the local thieves steal your car, are you supposed to find them and give them your wife's car too? Or should you call the police?

It looks as if Christ is recommending the first alternative in each case. Turn the other cheek! If someone takes your tunic, give him your cloak, too. It looks as if Christ is telling us to support bad people in their badness, so they can do bad things with impunity.

But to think this is to listen to Christ with a focus only on your own virtue. It is to forget entirely the wellbeing of your enemy.

Christ is not commanding us to be enablers of the unjust and oppressive. Christ is asking us to love them. How is love shown to a person by helping him towards hell?

Love your neighbor as yourself, Christ says. If you love your enemy in this way, you will want to help him be like you: someone trying to be like Christ.

Ordinarily, a bully will become worse and worse if he thinks he can hurt others with impunity. So to threaten an ordinary bully with punishment is to tug him back from his own moral destruction.

But sometimes a bully is so sunk in self-deceived evil that no threat of punishment, however credible, would make him better. The British in colonial India were an unjust, oppressive force of this kind. And so for them Gandhi's strategy of non-violent resistance was just right. Turning the other cheek might make a schoolyard bully worse; but it helped the British out of India.

Christ commands us to love our enemies. What we can give to help our enemies become more what we ourselves want to be is our gift of love to them.
