A Prayer for Youth

Spirit of Truth,
Inspire us to be genuine witnesses of faith.
Transform our lives, set our hearts on fire.
Call us to be the voice of justice.
Move our souls to cry for compassion.
Give us peace that we may become peace.
Instill in us courage that we might renew humanity.
We are the voice of youth
crying out in the wilderness.
Our souls are restless.
Come rest in us.
Amen.

FROM THE PASTOR

Thank you parishioners of St. James! Thank you all in our local community! Last weekends Silent Auction was, (outside of the Capital Campaign), our biggest fundraiser ever! You all helped to raise over $20,000 for our parish. Such generosity in giving and purchasing of items! Such hard work by so many volunteers! Besides all that, it was such a FUN as well as FUNDS night..... (Makes me want to do it all over again next week).

From the desk of Youth Ministry

This weekend we celebrate National World Youth Day. This celebration was started in 1985 by Pope John Paul II and is a time for us to recognize in prayer and worship the gifts that our Young People share not only with us, but also with the world. Here at St. James we are blessed with an extremely active and diverse group of young people. They share their faith, humor, time, talent, hospitality, wonder, knowledge, reverence, understanding, courage, peace, and so much more with us during Mass by being altar servers, lectors, cantors, Eucharistic ministers, and ushers. There are many that share these same gifts with us through participating in our social and service opportunities, and attending Religious Education each week. They help their peers and adults. They are blessings to this parish and this community every day.

We have a great group of Juniors and Seniors that are helping to lead this parish by participating in our Peer Ministry program. They have helped with some Confirmation Events and helping to plan Social Events and Service Opportunities. They are the best resource for what is happening in their World and they are eager to help this world. They are committed and wonderful and I feel blessed to have them in this Parish.

There are lots of exciting things happening with our Young People. I am open to suggestions for Social Events or if you know of some Service needs. These teens are awesome and I feel so grateful to be back at St. James working with them. They teach me everyday about faith and honesty. They truly are blessings to this parish, this community, and this World.

Enthusiastically,
Julie Hagan
